C. A quorum for all meetings of the Department shall consist of a majority of the full-time faculty assigned to the Department.

D. Proxy votes are permitted under extenuating circumstances only.

E. All part-time faculty (as defined by AAUP-CBA Section 1.6.2) will be invited to department meetings.

Article II  Personnel Procedures and Responsibilities

A. The Chairperson

1. The Chairperson shall be elected by the tenured and tenure-track faculty of the Department. A confidential voting ballot will be created with nominee(s) listed in alphabetical order.

2. The Chairperson administers the general affairs of the Department in accordance with the appropriate sections of the AAUP Collective Bargaining Agreement (AAUP-CBA Section 5.23).

3. Department meetings are held whenever called by the Chairperson. Full-time teaching faculty are expected to attend Department meetings. Agendas should be provided to all faculty within a reasonable time for review prior to the meeting (AAUP-CBA Section 5.22).

4. The Chairperson should not serve more than two consecutive three-year terms, in addition to emergency or partial terms, except in extraordinary circumstances.

5. The Chairperson will resign if requested by a 2/3 vote of the tenured and tenure-track faculty, exclusive of the Chairperson.

B. The Faculty

Procedures for appointments, renewal, tenure, promotion, and sabbatic leave shall be as follows:

1. Appointments Procedures

   Initial appointments of tenure-track faculty to the Department shall be recommended to the Dean by the Search Committee Chairperson (AAP-4) after consultation with the Search Committee members; tenured and tenure-track faculty who meet or attend the final candidates’ presentations should be given the opportunity to provide feedback to the Search Committee.

   Initial appointments of emergency hires shall be appointed by the Department Chairperson, however prior to an initial appointment of these hires, the Chairperson shall notify tenured and tenure-track faculty electronically, allowing tenured and tenure-track faculty 24 hours to respond with comments.

   Part-time members shall be assigned to available courses depending upon the department chairperson’s determination of credentials, experience, and teaching merit. When the chairperson determines that part-time members have similar credentials, experience and teaching merit, the chair shall recommend for appointment the person with the greatest length of service in the department. Following the chairperson’s determination based upon the above criteria, appointment shall be recommended to the dean for approval. Upon request, part-time faculty will be provided secure voice mail and secure storage space for course materials.

2. Departmental Evaluation Committee and Sabbatical Evaluation Committee (DEC)
   a. The DEC evaluates applications for renewal, tenure, promotion, and sabbatic leaves, according to AAUP-CBA Section 4.11 (Evaluation Full-time Members for Renewal, Tenure, and Promotion) and AAUP-Section 13.7 (Sabbatic Leave) and Department Procedures.
   b. Faculty on emergency appointment may request that the DEC review their qualifications and offer a general assessment of their portfolio and recommendation to the faculty member and Department Chair.
   c. Part-time faculty will have a teaching focused evaluation that includes the following:
      i. In their initial semester it is the responsibility of the department chair to appoint and offer guidance to the new part-time faculty.
      ii. No later than the third semester the part-time faculty should have a faculty peer observation.
      iii. Part-time faculty should have a faculty peer observation at least every three years.
      iv. The department chair will review part-time faculty student opinion surveys and provide guidance as necessary.
   d. The DEC evaluates professional assessments of tenured faculty (every six years), according to the AAUP-CBA Section 4.12 (Professional Assessment) and Department Procedures.
   e. The DEC shall be composed of three (3) tenured faculty of the Department (if possible) plus the Department Chairperson, ex-officio.
   f. Election of the DEC membership shall take place during the spring semester of each academic year. An alternate will be elected to replace any member unable to serve.
   g. DEC members will serve in two-year appointments. A DEC member should not serve more than three (3) consecutive full terms whenever possible.

3. Renewal, Tenure, Promotion, and Sabbatic Leave Policies
