The Mission Statement of the Department of Design:

The Primary Mission of the Department of Design (Graphic/Information) is to foster artistic talent in design, and to provide high quality, broad based, contemporary design education to both undergraduate and graduate students. The Department seeks to promote education that meets the creative graphic and information design needs of a rapidly changing global community. Graduates will have the artistic vision to conduct research and evolve unique visual solutions that are consistent with contemporary standards and needs. They will contribute to the development of complete, and highly aesthetic, social information systems within the visual culture.

The Department of Design strives to succeed in our mission in the following ways: The continued revision of course content as well as the creation of new courses with emphasis on the artistic content of the curriculum, the hiring of new faculty and staff and the continued education of existing faculty as artists, the continued development and updating of our computer labs and studio spaces, and the continuation of our community out-reach and internship programs.
