Item #2:

Revised Program Admissions Requirements BA Graphic / Information Design

Acceptance into the University and participation in the Pre Graphic / Information Design program does not guarantee acceptance into the Graphic / Information Design major.

Acceptance into the GID major is competitive and is limited by the number of students who can be accommodated. A student must receive a score of 85 or better on the comprehensive assessment administered in DES 122 Introduction to Graphic / Information Design to be considered for admission.

DES 122 may be repeated only with the permission of the Department Chair.

These criteria will apply to students admitted to the University in the Spring of 2004 or later and students who change their major to Pre GID in the Spring 2004 or later.
