Jim Mulrooney moved the following for the Academic Standards Committee: The Academic Standards Committee supports the development of an early intervention/student success initiative for first year students that may involve voluntary faculty participation in identifying students at academic risk. The Committee endorses this proposal with the expectation that the University will develop and fully fund a program to support these at-risk students.

Senator Warshauer move the following amendment: The committee will submit to the Senate any mechanisms of reporting and interventions as they are developed: Passed
Main motion, as amended: Passed.
