TO: Candace Barrington
President, Faculty Senate
FROM: Robert Wolff
Chair, Faculty Senate Ad-Hoc Committee on General Education
RE: Report of Ad-Hoc Committee

The Faculty Senate established the Ad-Hoc Committee on General Education in October 2010 (see Faculty Senate Motion 10.11.007B). The members of the committee are as follows:

- Robert Wolff (A&S, History)
- Mary Anne Nunn (A&S, English)
- Tim Reagan (SEPS, Teacher Education)
- Olga Petkova (SOB, MIS)
- Paul Resetarits (SET, Manufacturing and Construction Management)
- Thomas Burkholder (A&S, Chemistry and former chair of Curriculum Committee)
- Rachel Siporin (A&S, Art)

The Senate asked the Committee to ascertain “whether there is a need and/or desire to redesign the General Education program at CCSU.” To that end, the Committee conducted an electronic survey (see copy attached) on December 6-13, 2010. The CCSU President’s Office distributed the survey via email to all Academic and Administrative Departments in the University. The Committee received 230 responses to this survey.

Overall, 61.3% of respondents (141/230) agree or strongly agree that the General Education program should be re-designed. Looking more closely at AAUP Full-time faculty, those most responsible for the content of General Education, 65.6% (109/166) agree or strongly agree. These results are detailed in the table below. The Committee also reviewed 137 responses to an open-ended question about General Education included in the electronic survey. Based on the results of this survey, the Committee believes that “there is a need and/or desire to redesign the General Education program at CCSU.”

	N	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neither agree nor disagree	Agree	Strongly agree	Blank
AAUP Full-time	166	18 (10.8%)	10 (6.0%)	28 (16.9%)	54 (32.5%)	55 (33.1%)	1
AAUP Part-time	31	0	2 (6.5)	18 (58.1)	8 (25.8)	2 (6.5)	1
SUOAF-AFSCME	22	0	1 (4.5)	5 (22.7)	11 (50.0)	5 (22.7)
Other	11	0	0	5 (45.5)	4 (36.4)	2 (18.2)
Totals	230	18 (7.89)	13 (5.70)	56 (24.56)	77 (33.77)	64 (28.07)

Finally, the Committee asked Dr. Marc Goldstein (A&S, Psychology) to review the survey prior to its distribution. On behalf of the Committee, I would like to thank Dr. Goldstein for his guidance in matters of survey methodology.
