

Priority Registration for Student Veterans and Service Personnel

Whereas Central Connecticut State University acknowledges and appreciates the military service of its students;

Whereas CCSU understands the difficulty of scheduling courses against military commitments;

Whereas CCSU service men and women deserve the same privileges as Honors students and student athletes given their shared commitment to service;

Be it resolved that CCSU student veterans and service personnel have access to priority registration during all semesters of every academic year.