

Graduation requirements

Students graduating December 2017 or after from programs that require more than 120 credits shall be permitted to graduate with the new total credit standard of 120 credits, regardless of matriculation date. Students are still required to meet all degree requirements in place at their time of matriculation.