

Resolution of Appreciation to Ned Lamont for his work as Distinguished Professor of Philosophy and Political Science

Whereas Ned Lamont has served as Adjunct Professor at CCSU from 2007 to 2017 during which time he has made significant contributions to the life of the University;

Whereas Ned Lamont was recognized by the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut State Universities as Distinguished Professor of Political Science and Philosophy in recognition of the expertise he brought to the university;

Whereas Ned Lamont has taught classes in courses in Philosophy, Political Science and Peace Studies, bringing to our students his knowledge of issues such as human rights, government, and international relations of war and peace;

Whereas Ned Lamont has brought numerous speakers and organized panels addressing problems in state, national, and international affairs;

Whereas Ned Lamont has worked to develop policy options for the state and bring issues of public policy to the attention of our students and faculty;

Be it Resolved that on recommendation by the Departments of Philosophy and Political Science, and the Peace Studies Program, that the Senate thanks Ned Lamont for his more than a decade of service to the students and faculty of the university;

And further, Be it Resolved that the Senate invites Ned Lamont to return to the University as his time may permit, to address our Senate, students and faculty.

Mark Jackson
President, CCSU Senate

David Blitz
Chair, Department. Of Philosophy

Robbin Smith
Chair, Dept. of Political Science

Carol Austad
Co-coordinator, Peace Studies Program