

Fall 2020 Semester: A framework for developing a plan to ensure a successful opening

GOAL:

To develop a plan that addresses challenges created by the coronavirus pandemic, including the academic, psychosocial, and financial issues, as we consider reopening campus for the Fall 2020 Semester.

PROCESS:

- Eight work groups will discuss and develop responses to the questions (listed below). By May 8, each group will submit an executive summary to the Steering Committee.
- The Steering Committee will integrate the work group reports and submit recommendations to the Executive Committee by May 15.
- The Executive Committee will finalize a plan no later than May 20.

WORKGROUP QUESTIONS:

Fall 2020 Semester

Return to an on-campus operation:

What would a successful opening look like?

What are the challenges in opening for the fall semester?

Are there any services or activities that we may not be able to provide?

Are there any immediate needs?

Operating remotely:

What new challenges would a remote Fall 2020 create?

Are there any services or activities that we may not provide remotely?

Are there any immediate needs?

Spring 2021 Semester

What would a successful Spring 2021 Semester look like?

Are there any long-term needs to consider?
